Internships

Editorial, design, photography and website internships are available at all of Hill Times Publishing publications.

If you would like to get hands on, practical experience in today's changing news landscape, please send your resume with two samples of your best work and a cover letter explaining what you're interested in doing and why. Please also include specific dates on when you would like to intern at our publications. All internships are unpaid.

Please send your application by email to the appropriate manager below.
